

Cross Out the Scenarios that are Incorrect

I can start selling cookies in December to get a jump start.	I will eat while selling at a cookie booth.	I will say Thank You to my customers.	I will make the correct change.
I will wear my Girl Scout vest or sash while selling cookies.	I will be rude to my customers.	I will play with my friends while selling at a cookie booth.	I will smile to my customers.
I will block store doors.	I will say Thank You to people who have already bought cookies from other Girl Scouts.	I will hang posters on the store walls.	I will play on my Mom's phone (or my phone) while at a cookie booth.
I will be mean or rude to my customers.	I will take turns selling cookies at a cookie booth.	I will ask politely if people would like to buy Girl Scout cookies.	I will use the Cookies for Heroes money to buy toys.
