

Sing a Song of Safety

Sung to the Tune of "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain"

Girl Scouts are so careful,

Yes we are.

When we sell cookies

We stay safe as can be.

Our folks give their permission

In writing, so we turn in

Those signed slips to our leader

And begin.

We sell cookies with a buddy,

Or a grown-up.

We go door-to-door

All alone.

We watch out for all traffic

When we're crossing any street

And obey every signal

That we see.

We always sell in the daytime

Not at night.

We don't carry lots of money

Where we go.

We never approach a stranger's car

We don't go into people's houses

We stay outside on the doorstep

To be safe.
