

Girl Scout Cookie Booth Etiquette Pledge

We understand that selling cookies at a booth is not only a fun way to sell cookies but is a privilege as well. To assure that we remember booth sale etiquette, we make this pledge:

- We will only set up our booth at the designated, approved time and area.
- We will be identifiable as a Girl Scout and wear our Girl Scout Membership Pin, uniform or other Girl Scout clothing and have a neat and clean appearance.
- We will help keep the booth stocked and clean during the sale.
- We will stay by the booth and take an active role in selling cookies. We will not play or leave the booth area until our turn to sell at the booth is over.
- We will not have our cell phones at booths.
- We will not complain about any of the rules that are set by the business, and we promise to follow them.
- We will not block the entrance.
- We will have a good attitude, smile, and say thank you even if a customer does not buy.
- We will not have food or drink sitting on the table, nor will we eat or drink while working at the booth. (drinks may be kept behind the booth and girls should take short breaks to stay hydrated, but should not have them while working with customers)
- We will clean up after our booth and remove our trash (leave it better than we found it).
- Adults will always be present with girls and will resolve conflicts peacefully.
- We will notify our leader if we need to cancel.
